French Mercy Nurse Arrives for Tour of U.S.

Only Did Duty, Angel of Dien Bien Phu Says

Nurse is Official
Guest of Congress
On Visit to U. S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Lt. Genevieve De Galard-Terraube, the heroic French nurse who stayed with the wounded at Dien Bien Phu, modestly insisted, "I do not deserve this honor" when she stepped from a plane today to begin a three-week tour of the United States.

The "Angel of Dien Bien Phu," as the freckle-faced, shy nurse became known during the historic siege in the Indochina war, came down the steps of the Air France tourist plane 50 minutes after it had landed at Idlewild International Airport.

The plane was unloaded and taxied across to a hangar where special welcoming ceremonies were planned before she debarked.

"I do not deserve this honor for I have only done my duty," Miss Galard-Terraube said in a speech she had memorized in English. She wore her white short-sleeved uniform of the French Flight Nurses, with the Legion of Honor ribbon pinned on her dress.

Official Guest of Congress

Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R-Ohio) and Richard C. Patterson Jr., Commissioner of New York City's Department of Commerce and Public Events, met the nurse at the foot of the plane's steps and escorted her to a platform where microphones were set up.

Miss Galard-Terraube, who explained she did not wish to be called Lieutenant although it was an honorary rank, is the official guest of the Congress of the United States. She is the third person in official records to have such an honor. In 1924 Congress dispatched a ship to bring the Marquis De Lafayette to this country and in 1951, the same courtesy was extended to Hungarian patriot Louis Kossuth.

Miss Galard-Terraube seemed nervous as she spoke to reporters, but she smiled constantly. Her English, she said apologetically, was very bad "because in five

About Town And Country

By TIMOTHEUS T.

TRIP: Things haven't changed a bit since I've been out of town. Streets look the same, and that goes for the buildings.

Timmo took a trip to St. Louis yesterday on the McCormack bus, which is a relaxing way to go to the City of Cardinals, and saw a baseball tilt at Busch Stadium. I had never been to Busch Stadium, although I'd been to Sportsman's Park many times. For the information of those who haven't been, it is bigger than the stadium at Taylor Field somewhat and it has a vegetable garden or something out in the deep center field bleachers. I guess they put that in because the boys can try to knock the ball into the cabbage patch like they did when they were kids and scampers home. Anyhow, I imagine it took three or four thousand dollars to build the place but it probably was a good investment.

For the first four or five innings I thought the Cardinals were playing the Giants. Somehow I got the idea the Giants were the team the Cardinals were playing and the guy I thought was Willie Mays in the outfield turned out to be Jackie Robinson. Thought Willie was getting a bit fat.

I guess I should have known better because of the big B on the caps of the Brooklyn players but at the time I thought that the B meant that the team was the New York City B team, the New York Yankees being the A's. But again I should have known better because the A's play in Philadelphia.

I realize that in thinking I was seeing the Giants that I didn't see Leo Durocher, Giant pilot, parading around. But neither did I see Eddie Stanky of the Cardinals. I guess I just presumed that the two got together and agreed: "You stay in your dugout and I'll stay in mine."

Did you know that? Hot dogs are a quarter, hamburgers 35 cents, Cokes 15 cents and lemonade that is weaker than our own city water is 20 cents at Busch stadium. They didn't have watermelon.

Eldorado Also Has Water Troubles

THE ELDORADO RESERVOIR, pictured here from a point near the shelter house and refreshment stand at Karel park, looking toward the dam, indicates the low stage of the water supply. This picture is admittedly deceptive to a certain extent, in that the area in the foreground looks much larger than the area covered by water, due to perspective. However, the area in the foreground, shown covered with grass, is ordinarily covered with water when the reservoir contains an average amount.

Decision as to Usage Policy On August 1

Like Harrisburg but much unlike Carrier Mills, Eldorado also has a water problem.

Carrier Mills had practically flash floods last week that permitted sufficient pumping to relieve its emergency, but Eldorado has had no such relief.

The Eldorado supply is admittedly low, and Kenneth Smith, superintendent of the Eldorado Water company, states that the supply has been the subject of discussion, but there has been no restriction to date.

"We are operating on a month-to-month basis," he said. "There will be no restrictions on water use through the remainder of July, and a meeting will be held about August 1 at which time a policy for that month will be announced."

"The reservoir is low, but has been much lower," Mr. Smith said. "In 1941 it was about 18 inches lower than at present. We are hoping for a flash flood, such as Carrier Mills had, which would put us in good shape."

Mr. Smith said he "just couldn't say" how much water is left in the reservoir. Commenting on the recent rain, he pointed out there was almost an inch fall in Eldorado on the gauge at the water office, but only a drizzle fell at the reservoir.

Eldorado has a natural water shed for its reservoir, so does not have to rely on pumping for its supply. However, due to the extreme dryness of the watershed area, there has been little or no run-off into the reservoir during the various showers and light rains during the past several months.

At one time Harrisburg city officials considered a proposal by the private owners of the Eldorado reservoir that they secure their water supply from Eldorado, but surveys indicated in event of a drought, there would not be sufficient water for both municipalities.

Subsequent dry seasons have indicated the decision was correct, as there would not have been sufficient water for both areas.

World War One Vets Meet at Eldorado to Form Organization

An important meeting of World War I veterans was held at the city hall in Eldorado Sunday at 3 p. m. for the purpose of forming a permanent organization in the interest of all World War I veterans. About twenty were present.

Lovell Hess was named temporary chairman and C. O. Brown temporary treasurer. Both are from the local V. F. W. post. The next meeting will be held August 8 at 2 p. m. at the Eldorado city hall. All World War I veterans are urged to attend. Out-of-town speakers will be there to explain further the full purpose of this organization.

Good Indication At Oil Test Near Dorris Heights

By BOB SKEELS

Casing has been set on the wildcat test one mile northwest of Harrisburg on the Oscar Taylor farm in 8-9-66, more than six miles from other production. The operators, Jim Dean, Jake Hollowell and Southern Development Company, have set their 5 1/2-inch casing at 2615 on top of oil saturated Aux Vases sand 2616-23, after drilling to a total depth of 2643 in the O'Hara lime. The Point Creek sand 2454-72 and Benoit sand topped at 2500 both carried shows of oil and will also be tested. The Cypress sand was cored from 2380-87 and carried a show of oil and gas, which could be very commercial after fracturing. There is 19 feet of saturation in the Cypress section.

This could be the beginning of another oil field such as the one north of Eldorado and is definitely a pool opener in Saline county.

Arrest Two Women On Bad Check Charges

The alertness of a local hardware merchant today had put two women wanted throughout the state on charges of writing bad checks behind the bars.

He is Arthur Durham of the Durham hardware store in Harrisburg, who took the license number of their car after a check had been cashed at his store.

Held in the Saline county jail are Anna Crawford, 37, and Mary Black, 42, both of Ashmore Road 2 near Mattoon. They were brought here late Saturday by Dean Furry, office deputy sheriff.

The two women are charged with writing four bad checks in Saline county Friday. Warrants from Hillsboro charge they wrote seven bad checks there and the women admitted to local officers they wrote bad checks at Litchfield and Watseka.

The two came to Saline county Friday afternoon and wrote checks for $30 at Collins and Brown hardware store and for $28.80 at the State Street supermarket in Eldorado, buying small amounts of merchandise.

Then they came to Harrisburg, giving a check for $38.00 to the Stricklin charge and wallpaper store and a check for a similar amount at Durham hardware, also making small purchases at these two local stores.

However, Durham took the license number and on Saturday turned it over to Sheriff Paul Spangler, who found out to whom the license was issued. This led to the arrest of the women by Coles county officers, who said they found the merchandise bought when the checks were cashed in the Crawford home. The Block woman lived there, too, it was learned, working at a shoe factory in Mattoon.

Rhee Arrives for Talks with Eisenhower; Fears for Thailand

WASHINGTON (AP)—South Korean President Syngman Rhee flew here today to meet with President Eisenhower on the troubled Asian situation and to express his fears that Thailand would be the next victim of Communist aggression.

Rhee told reporters at McChord Air Force Base, Wash., where his plane landed at 3:24 a. m. EDT, after a flight from Korea, that "it's no secret Soviet Russia is out for world conquest" and "Thailand will be the next victim."

Rhee declined to comment on this trip to see Mr. Eisenhower. "I would rather keep silent on that until I talk to President Eisenhower," he said in answer to questions on military assistance to his forces and possible renewal of the war against North Korea.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon headed a large delegation of U. S. officials and foreign diplomats who turned out to greet Mr. and Mrs. Rhee and their party on their arrival at National Airport this afternoon.

Rhee, one of America's staunchest allies but biggest problems in the Far East, will be the overnight guest of President Eisenhower. He will move into Blair House Tuesday for the rest of his five-day state visit here. He is scheduled to address a joint session of Congress Wednesday.

You Chan Yang, South Korea's ambassador here, said in a week-end interview that American technicians in his country are losing "the battle of reconstruction" to the Communists in North Korea because of red tape, lack of coordination, and inter-agency jealousy.

He said this was one of the chief

Fire Damages Nave Greenhouse Near Eldorado

Fire did extensive damage to the Nave Greenhouse on Route 45 south of Eldorado Saturday morning.

Eldorado Fire Chief Quentin Wilson said the fire damage was estimated at around $15,000.

The fire, of undetermined origin, was in the north part of the greenhouse, where Bernel Nave, operator, kept his stock. Wilson said it was reported to him that the building damage would be $3,000 or $4,000 and that it would take from $10,000 to $12,000 to replace the lost stock.

The Harrisburg fire department sent one truck to help the two Eldorado trucks fight the blaze. Since the greenhouse is away from the city the firemen were hampered by lack of water.

The Harrisburg truck had 400 gallons of water in its booster tank and the Eldorado trucks had 250 and 800 gallons respectively. The 800 gallons being in the truck on loan to Eldorado until it can get a new one to replace the truck recently destroyed by fire.

Also, two large tank truckloads of water brought to the scene by the Hood and Lambert Oil Co. were used and a well nearby was pumped dry.

The Nave house, about eight feet from the fire, sustained some paint damage.

Congress Will Be Kept in Longer Session

Filibuster
Prevents Meeting
Adjournment Date

BULLETIN
WASHINGTON (AP)—The House today approved a new atomic law asked by President Eisenhower which would gear the nation to private development of atomic power. The bill, which also would lead to more international cooperation on atomic energy, was approved by a vote of 231-154.

By United Press
Congressional leaders notified President Eisenhower today the Senate filibuster has made it impossible to meet next Saturday's target date for adjournment.

They reported Mr. Eisenhower agreed that Congress should be kept in session several more weeks, if necessary, to end the filibuster and pass the atomic energy legislation.

Republican Senate Leader William F. Knowland (Calif.) also said after the conference that Mr. Eisenhower wants Congress held over to complete action on other items in the administration's legislative program.

The filibuster showed signs of breaking despite a defeat of Knowland's attempt to invoke a gag rule and shut off debate. That proposal failed to muster the necessary 64 votes, or two-thirds of the Senate, although it carried 44-42.

After refusing to shut off debate entirely, the Senate bowed to the "no surrender" leadership of the Republicans and agreed to limit to two hours debate on Sen. Herbert H. Lehman's motion to strike out from the bill language the New York Democrat said would tie the President's hands in implementing his proposed international pooling of peaceful atomic information.

The House, meanwhile, rejected a move to kill the bill and prepared to pass it speedily.

Other Congress highlights:
DROUGHT: Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) introduced a resolution requesting the secretary of agriculture to provide disaster relief immediately for drought-stricken farmers in the Mid and Southwest. He said the drought situation is critical.

IMMUNITY: A House Judiciary subcommittee approved legislation to grant immunity from prosecution to witnesses who waive the Fifth Amendment and testify in court or before congressional committees. The measure, a key feature of the administration's anti-subversive program, was adopted on a strict 3-2 party vote.

R. R. Brown, city motor fuel tax engineer, said that the F. C. Feutz Co. was scheduled to start the Granger and Sloan streets repair job today, and that the streets will have to be closed for a day or a day and a half.

The job originally was set to begin last Tuesday but a breakdown at the Feutz asphalt plant on Barnett street halted the plans. The project calls for resurfacing material on Granger from Main south to Robinson and on Sloan from Granger west to Land.

The streets will have to be closed, he said, after oil has been put on the surface because they will be so slippery they will be hazardous. Originally it had been planned to sand the oil to make them safe but the state division of highways has ruled out the sanding.

Cross streets, however, will be left open, Brown said. The intersections will be sanded and the sand will be swept off before the bituminous material is laid.

Youth is Fined on Reckless Driving Charge

Alexander Herron, 18-year-old Chicago youth arrested after the car he was driving hit a Triangle Construction Co. truck on the road construction job between Harrisburg and Carrier Mills, this morning was fined $200 and costs on a reckless driving charge when arrested before L. M. Hancock, acting county judge.

Herron, when arrested, admitted taking the car he was driving from a Chicago used car lot but said it belonged to his uncle. He was not charged with stealing it after his uncle said he had no desire to prosecute his nephew.

U. S. Planes Have Orders to Shoot Back if Attacked

WASHINGTON (AP)—Adm. Felix B. Stump, commander in chief of the U. S. Pacific Fleet, said today U. S. Navy planes in the Far East have standing orders to shoot back if they are attacked.

Stump, who is at the Pentagon for top-level consultations, talked to reporters at a news conference shortly after the State Department announced that carrier-based planes from his fleet had shot down two Red Chinese fighters that tried to interfere with rescue operation.

President Urges Moral Crusade By Free Peoples

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower called last night for a "great moral crusade" against "stupid" governments that try to dominate free peoples.

He declared that the nation must remain strong militarily to protect "our fireside and our rights." But "bullets and guns and planes and ships, all the weapons of war, can produce no real or lasting peace," he said.

"Only a great moral crusade to determine that men shall rise above this conception of materialism," he said, "... will win through to victory and the world will have prosperity and peace—prosperity beyond all imaginings of the past."

Mr. Eisenhower made the statements in an informal talk before the 12th World's Christian Endeavor convention here shortly after returning from an overnight trip to Camp David, his western Maryland mountain retreat.

He deplored cynicism that emphasizes only immediate, practical solutions to world problems. In the long run, he said, the only way out of these difficulties is to support the ideology that proclaims "the freedom and dignity of man" rather than materialism.

"All men, all masses, do truly long for peace," the President said. "... It is only governments that are stupid, not the masses of people. Governments may seek for power, for the right to dominate, to extend their authority over others. Free people do not seek that."

The World Christian Endeavor is an international organization of Protestant youth with about 4,000 members. About 2,000 delegates from all 48 states and 30 free world countries are attending the five-day convention.

Revival Begins At McKinley Avenue Baptist Church

A revival meeting began Sunday at the McKinley Avenue Baptist church with the pastor, Rev. J. D. McCarty, as evangelist. Doyle Hedger, a member of the church choir, is leading the song services. Tonight has been designated Sunday school night, and a large number of those enrolled in the Sunday school are expected to be present. There were 431 in the classes yesterday.

The 144 who were present for Training Union Sunday evening and others who are members of that organization are especially invited Tuesday night. Family night will be observed Wednesday.

Brotherhood Thursday night and Women's Missionary Union Saturday night. Friday night will be youth night and will be followed by a fellowship hour to be held in the lower rooms of the church for the young people. The youth choir from the Eldorado First Baptist church will sing in the service that night.

Everyone is invited to attend the services, which begin at 7:30 p. m. Mothers are reminded of the nursery with competent help available to care for their small children.

One was received by baptism in the first service of the revival Sunday morning, which was largely attended.

Joseph Drone, 78, Dies Near Ridgway

Joseph Drone, 78, prominent Galatin county farmer, died at his home southeast of Ridgway Sunday at 7:15 a. m.

The body is now at the Cox funeral home in Ridgway where the members of St. Joseph's Catholic church will meet today at 8 p. m. for the Rosary.

The body will remain at the funeral home until Tuesday at which time it will be taken to St. Joseph's church for the funeral at 9 a. m. Rev. William Wiegman will officiate, and burial will be in the church cemetery.

Mr. Drone, who was a widower, is survived by five sons and four daughters.

Carrier-Based Craft Attacked on Mercy Mission

Chinese Gunboat
Also Fires On Planes;
No U. S. Casualties

WASHINGTON (AP)—Carrier-based U. S. Navy planes on a "mission of mercy" off the China Coast shot down two Chinese Communist fighters Sunday night in an air battle provoked by the Reds.

A Chinese Communist gunboat also fired on the U. S. planes during the brief but sharp encounter which took place at 9 p. m. CST more than 12 miles off the coast of Red-held Hainan Island. There were no U. S. casualties.

The incident, announced today in statements by Secretary of State John Foster Dulles and Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson, was the first open clash between U. S. and Red Chinese forces since the Korean war.

Wilson said the U. S. planes were Douglas A-1 Skyraider attack bombers conducting search and rescue operations in the area where a British commercial airliner was shot down by Red Chinese fighters.

The single-engine, propeller-driven U. S. Skyraiders were attacked by two Chinese Communist LA7 planes, described as low-wing, single-seat aircraft which are one of the "Communists' fastest propeller-driven" fighter types.

Return Reds' Fire Promptly
"The U. S. carrier pilots returned the fire promptly ... shooting down both of the Communist planes," Wilson said.

He said the U. S. planes did not return the fire of the Communist gunboat.

Dulles' statement had said that two Skyraiders were involved in the air battle. Wilson did not say how many U. S. planes were involved, and Navy sources indicated that the number was not specified in official dispatches.

When the incident was announced angry members of Congress denounced the Red action as "piracy" and leaders called for national unity and coolheadedness.

Top administration officials were called to the White House to confer with President Eisenhower who has kept fully abreast of all developments.

The Russian and British ambassadors hurried to the State Department for private talks. The British ambassador, Sir Roger Makins, at least discussed the incident with Dulles.

Georgi N. Zarubin, the Russian ambassador, slipped out the back way after being with Dulles for five minutes.

Chinese Relations Already Strained
U. S.-Chinese relations were already severely strained by the attack Friday on the airliner, in which 10 persons, including three Americans, were believed killed. Three Americans were wounded but rescued by Navy planes in a daring rescue operation.

The U. S. carriers Hornet and Philippine Sea had been ordered to the scene Saturday to conduct and protect the rescue operation. The Skyraiders involved in the air battle apparently had taken off from one or both of these carriers.

Dulles said the United States would "protest most vigorously" against Red China's "belligerent interference with a humanitarian rescue operation being conducted over the high seas."

Red China previously had apologized to Britain for the attack on the airliner, claiming it was "accidental" and offering to pay damages.

Makins told reporters that Dulles told him about the shooting incident. The British ambassador's only comment was: "The American aircraft were attacked and they naturally responded."

The State Department said later that Zarubin and Dulles discussed only "minor matters" including an invitation to the United States to send representatives to an agricultural fair in Moscow.

Presidential Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said that President Eisenhower "is fully informed on this."

Ike's Health Bill

Editorial — BY BRUCE BLOSSAT

One of the chief hallmarks of President Eisenhower's regime is the tag, "middle of the road." Naturally, this is just a phrase until it is translated into specific plans and action. In his broad legislative program, the President has tried to give the phrase meaning.
As Mr. Eisenhower sees it,
"middle of the road" means a lot of emphasis on plans that call for voluntary mutual or self help by the people.

Such an approach throws upon the ordinary citizen the burden of solving many problems which,
according to other views of government, have been getting strictly Washington solutions.

It was in this spirit that the President proposed his bill for health insurance. The measure was designed to encourage groups like Blue Cross to offer people more health protection at lower cost.

Under the plan, a federal fund
of $25 million would have been created to insure private health insurance organizations against heavy losses.

The principle was much the same as that under which the federal government insures bank deposits. The idea was that, with such backing, the private groups would be inclined to expand their "usefulness in the service of the nation's health needs."

Obviously this is not a very drastic proposal. It bears virtually no resemblance to former President Truman's plan for universal, compulsory health insurance financed by a payroll tax, in the manner of social security. It would keep the federal government's role in the health field to a minimum.

Yet the Eisenhower program
went down to defeat in the House by more than 100 votes, and now must be presumed dead.

To be sure, Democrats provided
two-thirds of the negative votes, motivated both by a feeling the program was too modest and by a desire to deny to the Republicans any credit for social advances. But 75 Republicans also voted "no."

The most conservative of these dragged out the old saw about "socialized medicine." Now there is such a thing, as the British can testify. But if Mr. Eisenhower's program fits that definition, then our deposit-ridden banks are socialized, and so are the country's builders, who benefit from FHA-insured mortgages on new dwellings.

The fate of the President's health plan suggests that even the middle of the road looks like a dangerous spot to some people. We wonder what solutions they have for many of our major difficulties. Evidently they hope that if they sit tight and do nothing the problems will just fade away, like old soldiers.

FHA Boss Seeks New Rules To Erase Home Repair Abuse

By PETER EDSON
NEA Washington Correspondent

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The great Federal Housing Administration scandals uncovered last April have now been shaken down far enough to see what's going to come of them.

To date, the heads of 10 FHA officials have rolled under what might be known as the three R treatment — resigned, retired and removed.

No proof has been obtained
of any collusion between a government housing official and a contractor or mortgage lender suspected of fraud.

So far, nobody in or out of government has gone to jail. Getting an indictment and pushing a fraud case through the courts is a lengthy business.

No refunds have been secured
for tenants who were overcharged
on their rentals nor home owners who were overcharged for repair work financed under government insured loans.

The special investigation of FHA
by William F. McKenna, deputy Housing and Home Finance Agency administrator, is about half completed. The plan is to wind it up by Sept. 15 or before, so that the government housing outfits can get on with their business under the new housing legislation to which Congress has all but given finishing touches.

The Senate Banking and Currency subcommittee investigation
under Chairman Homer E. Capehart of Indiana has concentrated on some of the worst cases of windfall profits reaped by the builders of multiple-unit housing developments.

This was done under the now dead section 608 of the housing
law. It permitted builders to borrow under government insured
loans far more than the building costs of their projects. The excess they divided as dividends.

Of the 7000 loans insured under this program, 214 have been reviewed by the McKenna investigation. This three per cent of the total includes the obviously worst offenders.

The windfall profit on these cases amounts to over $40 million. This is the juicy bulk of the scandals.
There will be other cases, but not so big. The government was not defrauded out of this money. It was the tenants who had to pay $40 million more in rentals who got bilked.

On the so-called Title One home
modernization and repair loans guaranteed by the government, 204 complaints have been received so far. This is infinitesimal in comparison with the three million loans, valued at $1.5 billion, now outstanding.

Of the 204 complaints, 87 have been referred to the FBI for further checking. Eighty-one have been handled by FHA administrative action, such as blacklisting the lenders. And 36 cases have been closed because no action was warranted.

There have been 56 indictments returned, involving 113 persons, and there will unquestionably be some convictions as these cases go through the courts. This is only the beginning. There may be hundreds more. But nearly all are small cases, involving under $1000 apiece.

The great fear that exposure of these scandals by the Eisenhower administration would give the entire housing business a black eye has failed to materialize.

Furthermore, the investigation
thus far has not apparently shot to pieces the morale of government housing agency employees.
The hope is now that with the mess partially cleaned up, attention can be concentrated on better administration.

The immediate problem here for Housing and Home Finance Administrator Albert M. Cole is to put into effect regulations which will prevent repetition of the abuses under the Title One home repair program.

Government guarantees on loans
for barbecue pits, tennis courts, swimming pools and such frills
have already been banned.

It is recognized that regulations could be issued, so strict that they would dry up the home modernization business. That isn't desired.
But license to defraud home owners under the guise of giving liberal profits to money lenders and contractors is to be stopped.

The main intent here is first to make the contractor build to specifications. The responsibility for securing compliance on this will be left to the lending institutions and to private business in general. Detailed government inspection will be kept out of it.

The government's main responsibility will be limited to curbing the banks and home loan institutions which day after day make up loose loans that in the end add up to defrauding the home owner.
Government housing agencies recognize that they have a responsibility to the home owner. But the present Administration does not want to get into this so deeply that it has an army of inspectors okaying every contract the borrower makes, to be sure he gets his money's worth.

Harry L. Frier, seaman, USN, husband of the former Miss Wanda Foster of Harrisburg, is serving aboard the Atlantic Fleet destroyer
USS Ross en route to the Far East. The Ross is a unit of Destroyer Division 321 which left its home port of Norfolk, Va., in April.
The division entered the Pacific via the Panama Canal after a two day visit at Balboa, C. Z. The division is scheduled to operate with UN forces for several months in the Far East. Afterwards the division will proceed south across the equator and then steam on an around-the-world cruise home.

Allies Open Talks on Note to Reject Russia's Bid for Europe Security Talks

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States opened talks with Britain and France today on the wording of a diplomatic note rejecting Russia's bid for a European security conference.

Officials said the Allies regard the Soviet offer as an ill-disguised effort to throw a new block in the way of the European Defense Community. They said it will be turned down cold.

In Paris, officials said Premier Pierre Mendes-France is in no mood to venture into a new conference with the Communists when the Western Alliance might be jeopardized.

British sources predicted London will back the United States in an outright rejection of the Moscow proposal. West Germany also was reported adamantly opposed on the grounds that a new East-West parley would deal a death blow to the European Army plan Said Indochina Opened Way

In diplomatic notes to the Big Three, Russia declared Saturday that the Indochina truce reached at Geneva has opened the way for a settlement of other international issues.

A state department source said
the Big Three consultations are being conducted through normal diplomatic channels. He said officials have not had a chance to study the Soviet note fully.

But on first reading, he said, officials viewed it as similar to a

Soviet conference proposal last March 31 when the Big Three agreed it was "unnecessary to emphasize the completely unreal character" of the idea.

It was not known immediately whether the three Allies plan to send a single reply to Moscow or draft similar but slightly varying answers.

Ambassadors May Visit Dulles

It was expected that British Ambassador Sir Roger Makins and French Ambassador Henri Bonnet
would call on Secretary of State John Foster Dulles this week to help plan the general outline of the reply.

Dulles is expected to repeat his belief that there is no reason to believe the Soviet Union is willing to negotiate a settlement of such crucial problems as an end to German partition and the occupation of Austria.

Congressmen Support Action By Navy Planes

WASHINGTON (AP)—Angry congressional leaders today accused Red China of "piracy" in the skies.
They said U. S. Navy planes were justified in shooting down two Red fighters off the China coast.

The Navy's action got immediate and strong backing from Republican, Democratic, and independent lawmakers.

Chairman Alexander Wiley (R-Wis.) of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said the Chinese Communist planes which attacked
Navy aircraft conducting rescue operations were "pirates" and deserved to be shot down.

"We are doing now what we did in the case of the pirates of Tripoli," Wiley told reporters, referring to the early 19th century undeclared war which U. S. Navy ships fought with privateers off the coast of Africa.

"When on the highways of the world pirates, whether in airplanes
or ships, violate international law,
they can expect to be shot down,"
Wiley said.

Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper (R-Iowa), another member of the Foreign Relations Committee, said, "it is heartening that we will defend our interests and defend humanity against the barbarism of these savages."

Sen. Wayne Morse (Ind-Ore.)
said, "we must protect our sovereign rights in areas where we have a right to be."

Acting chairman Leslie C. Arends
(R-Ill.) of the House Armed Services Committee said the U. S.
planes were within their rights.

"We had a perfect right to be out there," Arends said. "If this incident took place over the high seas, as Mr. Dulles said it did, then I certainly don't blame the Americans for defending themselves."

Soviet Pilots Ahead of Americans In Pay, Benefits

WASHINGTON (AP)—Air Force
Magazine says Russian Air Force pilots rank ahead of U. S. Air Force fliers in pay, benefits, privileges and prestige.

Managing Editor John F. Loos-brock said in a copyrighted article in the magazine's August issue that Soviet pilots receive $765 a month compared with $655.80 for an American pilot.

The article also said the Russian flier gets free food, cigarettes, clothing, and a 50 per cent discount at civilian stores and restaurants. He also pays no income tax.

The U. S. Air Force pilot, the article said, must buy his food from a usually inadequate subsistence allowance and is taxed to "help foot the bill for his own services."

"Many U. S. pilots are discovering they can earn more money
'outside,'" the article said. "While the Red pilot has even more reasons for wanting to stay in."

The Italian language lends itself
best to singing.

French Mercy Nurse Arrives for Tour of U. S. (Continued from Page One)

years I didn't practice." Gives Opinion on Truce

She was asked her opinion of the truce in Indochina, and she answered promptly, although it had been emphasized before she arrived that her trip was not a political one.

"Despite the cruel sacrifices which were involved, this solution had to come to bring an end to the loss of human lives that was taking place," she said in French.

The 29-year-old nurse also was asked to explain why she sent two letters to Ho Chi Minh before she was released by the Communists on May 24. She read that answer from a statement already prepared, apparently by the French Consul's office.

"This letter, in my mind, had no political meaning whatsoever," she said, referring to her first letter written on May 16, on the occasion of the birthday of Ho. "It was the letter of a nurse, concerned only with helping the wounded, whose evacuation became daily more pressing. First Visit to U. S.

"I wrote to Ho Chi Minh a second time to thank him for my liberation, and to ask him for the release of the French doctors and male nurses who had remained with me at Dien Bien Phu."

The nurse left the airport in an eleven-car motorcade for the drive into Manhattan where she was here to "get into contact with the American people and to learn to understand them." This is her first visit to the United States.

In her prepared statement, Miss Galard-Terraube said she brought thanks to the American people from the families of wounded men flown back from Indochina to Paris on U. S. planes.

Four months ago, Lt. Galard-Terraube landed in a Red Cross helicopter to pick up wounded men at Dien Bien Phu and was trapped. For 51 days, while the fortress was besieged by Communist-led Viet Minh troops and finally captured, the courageous flight nurse attended to the wounded and became famous around the world.

Shortly after she was released by her Communist captors on May 24, the mademoiselle who was regarded as an angel of mercy by hundreds of men wounded in the Indochina battle said she hoped people would soon stop making such a fuss over her.

In spite of her modesty, Lt. Galard-Terraube has been showered with honors by her own government, and now will get the red carpet treatment usually reserved for visiting heads of state in this country.

Texas Returns Make Runoff Almost Certain

DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Final returns trickling in today from Saturday's Democratic primary election increased Gov. Allan Shivers' lead by a fraction but made a runoff on Aug. 28 almost inescapable.

A tabulation at 12:15 a. m. (est. of the vote from all of the state's 254 counties, including the complete vote from 201, gave Shivers 648,870 votes and Ralph Yarborough of Austin 629,496.

The other two candidates, Austin contractor J. H. Holmes and Arlon B. (Cyclone) Davis of Dallas, had 19,207 votes and 15,829 votes, respectively. Bob Johnson, manager of the Texas Election Bureau, estimated that only 45,000 votes still were uncounted.

The vote that Holmes and Davis got seemed certain to have forced a runoff.

The new tabulation increased the lead of other winners. Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson easily won renomination, which is the same as re-election. The newest returns showed him with 834,373 votes, more than twice as many as his only opponent, Dudley Doutherty of Beeville.

House Democratic Leader Sam Rayburn easily won renomination to his 22nd term, beating A. G. McRate, a fellow townsman of Bonham.

Novelist William MacLeod Raine Dies

DENVER, Colo. (CP)—William MacLeod Raine, a British-born novelist, died of a heart ailment after a week's illness. He was 83.

Raine was dean of the large colony of action Western writers in Colorado, and was still writing 500 words a day when his failing heart forced him into a hospital. His third wife, whom he married in 1945 after being twice widowed, was at his bedside until shortly before his fatal seizure.

Former Cook County Woman Judge Dies

CARMELE, Calif. (AP)—Funeral services were to be held in nearby Pacific Grove today for Mary M. Barteleme, retired Cook County, Ill., judge who died yesterday at her home after a three-week illness. She was 88.

Twice elected circuit judge from 1923 to 1933, when she retired, Miss Barteleme was the second woman ever to hold the position.

She was born in Chicago in 1866 and was admitted to the bar in 1894.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. David Tilt, Fontana, Calif., two nieces, Mrs. Adelaide Barteleme, Carmel, and Mrs. Fred I. Raymond, Glencoe, Ill., and a nephew, Edwin A. Tilt, St. Louis, Mo.

Find Five-Inch Length of Chain In Boy's Appendix

DU QUOIN, Ill. (AP)—Seven-year-old Clarence W. Conley and his parents said they were puzzled today about how a five-inch length of chain got in his appendix.

Clarence underwent an emergency appendectomy at Marshall Browning Hospital Sunday. The surgeon was having a difficult time when he discovered the chain, of a locket-type, extending from the boy's intestine into the appendix.

Neither Clarence nor his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Conley, could recall any incident that would explain the chain's presence.

By Williams List Requirements For Restricted Drivers License

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—Secretary of State Charles F. Carpenter today listed four requirements for obtaining the new "restricted local drivers license" in Illinois.

Carpenter said the new license was developed to allow certain persons who don't meet all requirements for full licensing to continue to have some use of their autos, particularly elderly people.

He said these four points govern the issuance of restricted local permits, allowing the motorist to drive only in certain areas:

1. The applicant has failed the regular examination for renewal.
2. He passed the road sign recognition and written traffic law parts of the exam.
3. He could pass the eye test for a restricted license.
4. He demonstrated he could exercise "ordinary and reasonable" care except in certain types of maneuvering and traffic situations.

NOTICE
PROPOSED CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

Pursuant to law in such case made and provided, public notice is hereby given that the following proposed amendments to the Illinois Constitution will be submitted on a separate blue ballot to the electors of the State of Illinois for adoption or rejection at the General Election to be held on November 2, 1954.

LEGISLATIVE
APPORTIONMENT
AMENDMENT

Article IV

Section 6. The General Assembly in 1955 shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state senators. There shall be fifty-eight senatorial districts. Cook county shall have twenty-four of the districts. These twenty-four districts shall be located as follows: Eighteen in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the city of Chicago; and six in the territory that is in Cook county outside such corporate limits. The remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have thirty-four of the senatorial districts.

All senatorial districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory. In their formation, area shall be the prime consideration. The senatorial districts shall be numbered one, two, three, and so forth, including fifty-eight. Each such district shall elect one senator whose term of office shall be four years. Senators elected in districts bearing even numbers shall be elected in 1956 and every four years thereafter; and senators elected in districts bearing odd numbers shall be elected in 1958 and every four years thereafter.

Section 7. The General Assembly in 1955 and in 1963, and every two years thereafter, shall redistrict the state for the purpose of electing state representatives. There shall be fifty-nine representative districts. In the 1955 redistricting, Cook county shall have thirty of the districts. These thirty districts shall be located as follows: Twenty-three in the territory that is within the present corporate limits of the City of Chicago; and seven in the territory that is in Cook County outside such corporate limits. In the 1955 redistricting, the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state shall have twenty-nine of the representative districts. In redistricting subsequent to the 1960 census, and thereafter, the fifty-nine representative districts shall be divided among (1) that part of Cook County that is within the present corporate limits of the City of Chicago; (2) that part of Cook County that is outside such corporate limits; and (3) the remaining one hundred and one counties of the state, as nearly as may be, as the population of each of these three divisions bears to the total population of the state.

Representative districts shall be formed of contiguous and compact territory, and shall contain, as nearly as practicable, a population equal to the representative ratio; outside of Cook County, such districts shall be bounded by county lines unless the population of any county entitles it to more than one representative district. The representative ratio for the entire state shall be the quotient obtained by dividing the population of the state by fifty-nine. No representative district may contain less population than four-fifths of the representative ratio.

Three representatives shall be elected in each representative district in 1956 and every two years thereafter. The term of office shall be two years. In all elections of representatives, aforesaid, each qualified voter may cast as many votes for one candidate as there are representatives to be elected, or may distribute the same, or equal parts thereof, among the candidates, as he shall see fit; and the candidates' highest in votes shall be declared elected.

Section 8. In performing its duties under Sections 6 and 7 of this amendment, the General Assembly shall redistrict and reapportion in a single legislative enactment. If, however, the regular session of the General Assembly in 1955 as to both senatorial and representative districts or in 1963, or any ten years thereafter as to representative districts, fails by the first day of July to redistrict the state into such districts, then the redistricting shall be accomplished by a commission. Within thirty days after such first day of July, the state central committee of each of the two political parties, casting the highest votes for governor at the last preceding gubernatorial election, shall submit to the governor of the state a list of ten persons. Within thirty days thereafter, the governor shall appoint the commission of ten members, five from each list. If either of the state central committees fails to submit the list within the specified time, the governor, within the specified time, shall appoint five members of his own choice from the party of such committee. Each member of the commission shall receive $25.00 a day, but not more than $2,000 for his service.

This commission shall redistrict the state into senatorial districts and into representative districts in the manner specified above. This commission shall file with the secretary of state a full statement of the numbers of the senatorial and representative districts and their boundaries. No such statement shall be valid unless approved by seven members of such commission. After such statement is filed, senators and representatives shall be elected according to the statement and the districts therein determined, until a redistricting and reapportionment are thereafter made by the General Assembly as provided in this amendment. If, however, the statement is not filed within four months after the commission is appointed, it shall stand discharged. Thereupon, all senators, scheduled for election at the next election for state senators, and all state representatives shall be nominated and elected at the next election from the state at large. Following such an election at large, the General Assembly at its next regular session shall perform the duties specified in this amendment. But if such a General Assembly fails to perform these duties, then another commission, as specified in this Section 8, shall be appointed in like manner, with like effect, and so forth until a valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment are secured in this 1950 decade and each decade thereafter. But there can be only one valid senatorial and representative redistricting and reapportionment during a particular decade.

Schedule

While this amendment of Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV, if adopted, shall be effective upon its adoption, nevertheless the General Assembly meeting in 1955 or 1956 shall consist of fifty-one senators and one hundred and fifty-three representatives as provided in Sections 6, 7 and 8 of Article IV of the 1870 constitution of Illinois before the adoption of this amendment.

If the 1955 General Assembly in its regular session redistricts and reapportions, as required, or if upon its failure the commission does so, then those senators, who are still residents in odd numbered districts and who were elected in 1954, will retain their offices until the expiration of their terms. But in those odd numbered districts, as created in 1955, where no senator elected in 1954 has been a resident for one year next preceding the election in 1956, a vacancy exists in the office of senator for such district exists. Likewise, a vacancy exists in the office of senator in such odd numbered districts where two or more senators elected in 1954 are residents of the district. In either case, a senator in such an odd numbered district shall be elected in 1956 for a term expiring in 1958. The main purpose of this schedule is to provide for a senate with a full quota of members in 1957-1958.

Any senator elected in 1954, who is eliminated from his office by the redistricting, and who is not re-elected in 1956 for the two year term, shall be paid the salary for 1957-1958, that he would have received if he had been able to serve the full term of his office and shall receive such other benefits as would have accrued if he had served such term.

Form of Ballot

The proposed amendment to Article IV will appear upon the constitution ballot in the following form:

PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO SECTIONS 6, 7 AND 8 OF ARTICLE IV(Legislative Apportionment Amendment)

Explanation of Amendment
This amendment will direct the General Assembly to redistrict the State for the purpose of electing one Senator from each of 58 senatorial districts and three Representatives from each of 59 representative districts.

As concerns the Senate, area would be the "prime consideration" in the formation of the 58 districts. Downstate would be entitled to 34 districts and Cook county to 24 districts, 18 of them in Chicago and six in the county outside Chicago.

As concerns the House of Representatives, the 59 districts would be based upon equal population as nearly as practical, except that in the redistricting prior to the 1960 census, downstate would be entitled to 29 districts and Cook county to 30 districts, 23 of them in Chicago and seven in the county outside Chicago. The three Representatives from each district would be elected by cumulative voting, as at present.

Should the General Assembly fail to redistrict as directed, this duty would fall on a commission appointed by the Governor. The State central committees of the two major parties would each submit a list of 10 nominees to the Governor, who would appoint five from each list, making a 10 member commission. Should the commission fail to redistrict, Senators coming up at the next election and all Representatives would be elected from the State at large. If the resulting General Assembly still fail to redistrict, a new commission would be appointed, as before, and should this second commission fail to redistrict, legislators would again be elected at large—and so forth until a valid redistricting is secured.

XXXI

The rods were purring, the sound of their mellow exhaust a siren song of invitation to forget everything in the sound of their singing on the open road. There would be drags, car against car, driver against driver, and the long run home, and the race for town. Link was watching Ricky, with the bold look of a leader.

"You—you go on without me," Ricky said. "Come on, Ricky!" Jerry yelled. "We need you!"

"Gotta work!" Ricky yelled back. "Gotta get my coupe in shape for the show!"

Link didn't wait to argue. He cracked his throttle and was off with a squeal of tires and a roar of power. The others jumped after him. They circled the square and headed out of town.

Ricky stared at the DTA sticker on his windshield. He laughed bitterly. "The only member," he said, pointing to the sticker. "Big deal."

"It will be," Sharon said. "If you stick you'll find others to follow. If the fellows see that you won't quit, they'll come back. And if you win a prize, they'll all want to be in for next year."

Mr. Madison rubbed his temple and adjusted his glasses. "I agree, Ricky. It's a wonderful idea. It will show you whether you have talent in this field, and it will have a social value. But banks don't lend money on good deeds."

"Then I have to give it up," Ricky said mournfully. "If the bank won't."

"Dad!"

"Doggone you, Ricky," his father said fondly, "do I have to beg you to let me in as a partner? I want to see what you can do, and I want to work alongside of you, if I can."

Ricky's eyes were suddenly moist. "Gee, Dad, I didn't think you—I don't know—I guess I didn't think."

"I ought to be as good with a hammer as Sharon Bruce," his father grumbled. "Even if I don't look as good in coveralls."

His father looked at him seriously. "It's nothing you haven't earned, boy. I've been watching you from the first day you bought your car. I saw you go through that wild, reckless stage, and I almost took it away. Then I saw you fight for your organization, and I saw you're really serious about car design. And I've watched you drive according to your DTA rules when all the others gave up. I know it wasn't easy, but you did it, and alone. Now I'd like to help you win the reward you've earned."

"I guess you know I'll go to college before I start in business," Ricky said solemnly. "Boy, do I have a lot to learn before I dare work on anybody's car."

Because he was proud of his son's project, Madison talked about it to the editor and publisher of the Delville Recorder. The following week Ricky was on the front page:

LOCAL BOY ENTERS
AUTO DESIGN SHOW

Under the headline a long story told not only about Ricky and his plans, but also mentioned the Delville Timing Association, the sponsoring group.

The results Ricky garnered from the story were quick and amazing. The first phone call to him was from the local body shop, offering him use of their facilities, advice, and some labor.

The next caller was from one of the service stations. He offered Ricky free gas and oil.

The third call was from the big garage in Delville, also offering space, tools and parts at dealer's prices.

A few days later the Booster Club collected $50 to help costs, and Ricky's biggest thrill came when Sherm dropped around to offer him $5 he had collected from former members of the DTA—who wanted to know when the next meeting would be held! And they offered to give him any parts they had which he needed.

Ricky was overwhelmed, and at first it seemed everything had been done. All he needed now was to attend the show and walk off with his prize. It was sobering and almost disheartening to realize that the work now had to be done. The real work.

Spare time ceased to exist in Ricky's life. He lived in the garage and the body shop.

The body-shop men were interested, but they had their own work to do, and although they helped when they could, and did the most delicate jobs, the bulk of the toil fell to Ricky.

Carlsbad's Bats
Hibernation of the Carlsbad Cavern bats begins about Oct. 15 each year. Around May 1, they begin to fly out at dusk for insect food. By midsummer, their flights are a spectacle not easily forgotten. It was the clouds of bats that led to discovery of these New Mexican caverns.

Assessment List

Herewith is a list of personal property assessments for Harrisburg township in the area outside the City of Harrisburg of Harrisburg township and returned to PAUL HILLIARD, County Treasurer and Supervisor of Assessments of Saline County, Illinois.

The assessed values shown are subject to revision by the Saline County Board of Review and to equalization by the State Department of Revenue. Under Provisions of Section 146 of the Illinois Revenue Act of 1939 as amended in 1945, the Department of Revenue is required to determine the percentage relationship within each county of assessed value and the estimated full, fair cash value. Upon the basis of such data, the Department is required to raise or lower the total locally assessed values so that all such property will be assessed at its full, fair cash value.

These equalized values then become the base for tax extension for 1954 taxes, payable in 1955, and indicate the full, fair cash value of the properties assessed, based on the assessed values as made by the local assessment officials.

This publication, which is made in accordance with section 103 of the Revenue Act, serves as public notice to the taxpayers of the County of assessed values fixed upon their property by the township assessors.

Stratton Advised Centralia Has No Water Emergency

SPRINGFIELD (U.P.)—Gov. William G. Stratton was advised today that a water supply emergency does not exist in Centralia.

C. W. Klassen, Chief State Sanitary engineer, reached the conclusion in a report to Stratton on his office's investigation of Centralia's request that a state of emergency be declared.

"From our engineer's report," Klassen said, "we do not feel that an emergency exists at this time."

Mayor Robert M. Washburn sent Stratton a letter last Tuesday saying the city's water supply was short, and asking him to declare an emergency so it could borrow pipe from the civil defense agency to pump more water.

Klassen ordered State Sanitary engineer H. A. Frederick, Florida, to investigate the situation. Frederick visited Centralia Friday, inspected conditions and conferred with city officials.

He informed Klassen that Centralia now has a total of 812,000 gallons of water on hand in Racoon Lake, Lake Centralia, Old Reservoir and Crooked Creek.

The town uses about 2,000,000 gallons a day and loses the same amount from its supplies daily thru evaporation, Frederick said, so it still has about 200 days supply left.

In many sections of the United States, the bass is considered both a food and a game fish.

Tommy Bolt Upsets Snead In PGA Play

ST. PAUL, Minn. (AP) — Tommy Bolt, fresh from an upset win over Sam Snead, meets Chick Harbert today in the semi-finals of the PGA golf tournament.

Defending champion Walter Burkemo, who beat Roberto De Vincenzo for a 5 and 4 quarter-final victory, is matched with favorite Cary Middlecoff.

Bolt, a wiry veteran, came from behind for a 1-up victory on the 39th hole over Snead, three-time PGA winner.

In other quarter-finals matches, Middlecoff edged Shelley Mayfield of Chicopee, Mass., 3 and 1; and Harbert of Northville, Mich., beat Jerry Barber of La Canada, Calif., 1-up.

Bolt hit an even par five on their third extra hole but Snead blew up. Slammin' Sam of West Virginia drove into the rough and decided to gamble with a wood on his second shot.

He dubbed the shot and the ball went less than 100 yards down the fairway. He walked along whistling and on his next shot he went into the rough again — to the left on the green. His chip rolled 20 feet past the cup.

Snead's putt came close but rolled several feet past the cup while Bolt just missed a birdie and took a par five. That ended it. Snead led nearly all the way until near the end. He was in front 1-up after nine and 18 and 2-up after 27 holes. But Bolt evened it up on the 34th and they stayed even through the 36th.

The two halved the first two extra holes and then Snead lost. Played Sub-Par Golf.

Both Bolt and Snead played sub-par golf. Bolt had 69 on the first 18 holes and 68 on the last leg while Snead carded a 68-69.

Middlecoff came from behind to win. Mayfield led 3-up at the end of nine, but Middlecoff was 3up after 18. At the end of 27 holes it was all even.

Middlecoff turned on the heat from there on, going 2-up with birdies three on the 28th and 29th holes. Mayfield birdied the 30th at par four, cutting the dentist's lead to 1-up but that was the last hole Mayfield could grab.

Burkemo built up a commanding 5-up lead over De Vincenzo in the first half of their match and the South American couldn't beat the pace.

Harshman Strikes Out 16 As White Sox Win; Dodgers Beat Cards; Giants Lose

By MILTON RICHMAN

United Press Sports Writer

Jack Harshman's 16 strikeouts not only set the Red Sox on their ears and set a new season record, but also set the experts to thinking that maybe they've counted out those unpredictable White Sox too soon.

Harshman, a remodeled first baseman with a picked-up-along-the-way screwball, breathed new life into the White Sox pennant chances and helped boost them within six games of the American league lead Sunday while brushing up against Bob Feller's modern strikeout record of 18 in a single game.

By striking out 16 Boston batters the 27-year-old left-handed Harshman eclipsed the 14 strikeouts registered by Bob Turley of Baltimore against Cleveland earlier this season and coasted to a 5-2 victory in the opener of a doubleheader. The White Sox then made it a sweep by winning the nightcap, 4-2.

Putout Record Equalled

En route to his spectacular triumph, Harshman helped batterymate Matt Batts make 18 putouts, equaling the modern record for catchers, and he also erased the White Sox club mark of 15 strikeouts in a single game set by Ed Walsh twice and tied by Jim Scott 41 years ago.

Harshman struck out every batter in the Red Sox starting lineup at least once and his 15th strikeout was registered at the expense of Ted Williams in the seventh inning.

Don Johnson was the White Sox' winner in the nightcap, although Morris Martin and Sandy Consuegra had to help him in relief. Ellis Kinder was the loser.

The Yankees cut the Indians' lead to 1-2 games and ended a six-game Cleveland winning streak with an 11-inning 4-3 triumph credited to rookie Bob Grim in relief. The Yankee hero was Andy Carey, who singled with the bases loaded in the 11th.

Frank Shea of Washington won his first game after eight losses by beating Detroit, 11-3.

Athletics Win Doubleheader

The Athletics won their first doubleheader since June 13 by humbling the Orioles twice, 9-4 and 6-3. A seven-run rally in the eighth inning helped reliever Al Sima to victory in the opener while a four-run rally in the seventh made Sonny Dixon the winner over Don Larsen in the nightcap.

Nash Ramblers Defeat Johnston City Nine, 11-6

The Nash Ramblers defeated Johnston City yesterday afternoon, 11-6, in a well-played game on the town park diamond.

Jack Nolen was the winning hurler, but had to be relieved in the sixth when he became tired. He had allowed six runs on nine hits and two walks and had retired three on strikes. Parker relieved and pitched two-hit ball and was not scored on.

The visiting J. C. team scored one in the first, then Nash tied the count on a homer by Ken Nolen, leadoff batter who slammed the ball over the centerfield lagoon for the round tripper.

Four more runs cross the plate for Nash in the third, with a walk to Ken Nolen, a single by Karnes, an error and Bill Fulkerson's home run figuring in the run production.

The fourth saw four more runs cross the plate for Nash. Singles by Wilson, Ken Nolen and Karnes, plus an error and a double by Shewmake manufactured the markers.

Johnston City picked up three runs in the fifth and two in the sixth and Nash scored lone tallies in each of the 6th and 7th innings to complete run making for the day.

Bryant was the losing hurler with Trapani doing the catching for Johnston City. Hoyle, Talack and Samples, with two hits each, led the visitors at the plate.

For Nash Ken Nolen had two hits, as did Shewmake, Sisky and Wilson. Zeigler and Fulkerson each had one blow and Karnes cracked out three singles.

Salty Sea

Palestine's Dead Sea contains no living creature, since it is too salty for life. Its chemical contents have been estimated to be worth more than $1,200,000,000,000.

Brooklyn moved within four games of first place in the National league race by defeating the Cardinals, 2-1, while the pace-setting Giants lost to the Braves, 7-5.

Clem Labine hurled a six-hitter for the Dodgers but had to be bailed out by Jim Hughes when St. Louis loaded the bases with two out in the ninth. Hughes struck out Rip Repulski on three pitches to end the game.

Paul LaPalme's six-hit pitching plus Frank Thomas' four hits, including his 13th homer, gave the Pirates a 4-2 victory in the opener of a twin-bill with Cincinnati but Howie Judson's two-run single in the seventh inning of the nightcap helped him win his own game, 3-2.

The Cubs won a doubleheader from the Phillies, 4-2 and 3-2. In the opener, Paul Minner hurled a four-hitter while Ralph Kiner drove in three runs with his 15th homer and a triple. Bob Talbot's two-run single with the bases loaded in the ninth earned reliever Jim Davis the decision in the finale.

Gene Trammel kept the Harrisburg Merchants on the winning side Sunday afternoon by hurling a seven-hit, 13-6, victory over the Cambria Merchants on the Cambria diamond.

The Cambria nine had lost only two games previously, both to the Menard prisoners. Trammel, in going the distance, racked up his third win of the season.

Although the Merchants collected only 11 safeties off Noakes and J. Ballinger, Cambria hurlers, they mixed nine bases on balls and some headsup base running to add up to 13 tallies. Freddie Williams copped the hitting honors with three safeties in four trips, followed by Dick Romonosky with three hits in six attempts. Frank Logsdon, who came up with a pair of sparkling plays afield, sent Noakes, Cambria's starting pitcher to the showers with a three-run homer in the first.

In the first stanza the Merchants jumped off to a five run lead on four hits and an error, only to have Cambria narrow the margin in its half by collecting three runs on two walks, and two hits, which included a triple by J. Bollinger.

After the locals added three runs in the second Cambria made it 8-6 in its half of the third. Trammel then hurled shutout ball the rest of the game while his teammates added a single run in the seventh and a pair in each of the last two frames.

Next Sunday the Merchants play Mt. Carmel at the town park diamond which will see Billy McNew going after his seventh win.

Cahokia Downs, New Race Track, To Open Tuesday

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill. — Cahokia Downs, the nation's newest and most modern race course, will launch its inaugural meeting tomorrow night as night horse racing at the magnificent $3,000,000 plant arrives on the greater St. Louis sports scene.

Officials of the East St. Louis Jockey Club, owners and operators of the swank three-quarter mile track, announced that all will be in readiness when the first of nine races will get underway promptly at 8 p. m.

Daily purse distribution will range as high as $23,000 with a minimum of $10,000 and an aggregate of $150,000 for the first ten days of the meet. This total will unquestionably establish a new high for Illinois exclusive of the Chicago area.

Cahokia's executive director, John Stelle, promises well supervised and interesting racing during the initial meet, and Stelle, along with his associates, feels confident that turf enthusiasts of greater St. Louis as well as those in Illinois will warmly accept the calibre of competition they plan to offer.

A regulation sixty-day meet, plus ten additional charity dates will comprise Cahokia's 70-day schedule. Racing will be presented nightly, Tuesday thru Saturday starting at 8 o'clock.

Dale Asks Review Of Tax Claim by Revenue Service

WASHINGTON (AP)—Evan R. Dale, Carbondale, Ill., union leader, has asked the U. S. Tax Court to review the claim of the Internal Revenue Service that he owes $115,343 in back taxes and $76,465 in penalties for the years 1947-1952.

In a petition filed by his attorneys, Dale challenged the findings of the Internal Revenue Service last April.

The records revealed that in 1952 Dale reported a net income of $10,951, with $5,431 of this representing his salary from the Southern Illinois District Council of the International Brotherhood of Hodcarriers, Builders, and Common Laborers union.

The Internal Revenue Service said that this net income should have been $81,796. It disallowed some of Dale's deductions and said he received $37,637 in income which he did not report. Source of this alleged income was not stated.

The Internal Revenue Service said he owes $50,561 in back taxes for 1952 alone, plus a $23,280 in penalties.
